CLEVELAND -- Wittenberg junior Matt Borland (Kettering, OH/Alter) and Allegheny senior Eric Sloan (Pittsburgh, PA/Mt. Lebanon) have been named Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year to highlight the 2007 All-North Coast Athletic Conference men's soccer selections.

Borland, a midfielder, finished with eight goals and four assists for 20 points over 19 games (1.05 points per game). He led the Tigers to third place in the North Coast with a 6-2-1 record in conference play. He ranked fifth in the NCAC in points scored, fifth in goals, sixth in points per game and seventh in goals per game. Borland makes his second straight appearance on the first team and also was a second team All-NCAC selection in 2005.

He also makes his second consecutive appearance on the first team after earning second-team nods in 2004 and 2005. Sloan scored one goal and three assists for a Gator team that finished fourth with a 5-4-0 record and was second in the conference with 0.68 goals allowed per game.

Hiram sophomore David Krems (Lakewood, OH/Lakewood) and Denison junior David Folt (Hudson, OH/Hudson) are also repeat first-team selections. Wittenberg junior Shane Price (Minford, OH/Minford) moves up to the first team after earning second-team recognition in 2006. Ohio Wesleyan head coach Jay Martin is the NCAC Men's Coach of the Year for the seventh time and second year in a row. Martin guided the Battling Bishops to a second-place finish, their sixth NCAC Tournament crown and their NCAA-record 30th appearance in the NCAA Division III tournament.
