NCAC Women's Soccer Special

For Immediate Release

ALL-NCAC WOMEN'S SOCCER SQUAD ANNOUNCED; WALL, MCINTYRE TAKE TOP INDIVIDUAL HONORS

November 11, 2004

CLEVELAND -- Ohio Wesleyan junior forward Sarah Wall (Columbus, OH/Upper Arlington) and Wittenberg sophomore defender Jamie McIntyre (Columbus, OH/Grandview) have been named Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year to highlight the 2004 All-North Coast Athletic Conference women's soccer selections.

Wall, who also earned Player of the Year honors the past two seasons, was the conference's top scorer this fall with 16 goals and 12 assists for an average of 2.32 points per game. In three seasons, Wall has 62 goals, 38 career assists and 162 career points. She can add to her totals as the Battling Bishops have earned their eighth NCAA Tournament berth and will host Manchester Saturday in second round action. McIntyre was the spark of the Tigers defense, leading a unit which allowed only 14 goals in 19 games. The Tigers posted the second best goals-against average in the league (0.66).

Other repeat first-team selections from last season are Denison sophomore forward Anne Young (Columbus, OH/Worthington Kilbourne) and junior midfielder Colleen Wirz (Westerville, OH/St. Francis deSales). Both are former Newcomers of the Year, Young last fall and Wirz in 2002, when she earned a second-team nod.

Denison goalkeeper Liz Gillette (Menton, OH/Notre Dame Cathedral Latin) was named 2004 Newcomer of the Year after posting a sparkling 0.76 goals-against average. She allowed 12 goals in 18 games and only allowed three goals in eight NCAC games. Gillette was one of three freshman to make the All-NCAC first team, joining teammate Kim Cochran (Upper Arlington, OH/Upper Arlington) and Wittenberg's Lisa Rusch (Columbus, OH/Worthington Kilbourne).

Wittenberg's Norm Riker is the North Coast's Coach of the Year for the first time. Wittenberg recorded a 11-4-5 mark during the regular season and advanced to the final of the NCAC tournament for the first time in school history. Riker is 25-26-6 in three seasons at Wittenberg, including an 11-13 mark in NCAC play.
