NCAC Women's Tennis Special

ALL-NCAC WOMEN'S TENNIS SQUAD ANNOUNCED; OBERLIN'S GLYNN SWEEPS INDIVIDUAL HONORS

For Immediate Release
May 3, 2005

CLEVELAND -- Oberlin freshman Kimiko Glynn (West Des Moines, IA/Valley) has been named Player of the Year and Newcomer of the year to highlight the 2005 All-North Coast Athletic Conference women's tennis selections.

Glynn, who compiled a 17-1 record in singles this spring, is the only new addition to the first team. She is expected to receive an invitation to the individual portion of the upcoming NCAA Division III Championships. Glynn is joined on the first team by a quintet of repeat first-team honorees - Wittenberg senior Emily Figel (Ft. Wayne, IN/Homestead), Ohio Wesleyan junior Kelly Glassburn (Westerville, OH/Columbus School for Girls), Denison sophomores Amelia Crace (Cincinnati, OH/The Seven Hills School) and Lauren Parsons (Western Springs, IL/Lyons Township), and Big Red senior Meredith Sulser (Dublin, OH/Coffman). Figel and Sulser are both four-time first-team selections. Figel was the 2002 Newcomer of the Year, Crace earned the honor in 2004 and Glassburn was last season's NCAC Player of the Year.

Denison's Crace and Parsons combined to earn their second straight first-team recognition in doubles. Ohio Wesleyan's Glassburn and sophomore Ali Long (Atlanta, GA/Centennial) also make a repeat appearance on the first team for doubles. Glynn and sophomore Bionca Barr (Chicago, IL/Libertyville) of Oberlin are the third doubles combination voted to the first team.

Denison's Peter Burling is the women's tennis Coach of the Year for the fourth time after guiding the Big Red to their fourth straight and fifth overall North Coast title with a 15-2 mark. He has a 107-36 record in the seven seasons he has coached the women's team at Denison. Burling also coaches the Big Red men's tennis team and has earned this honor six times in that role.
